FOE STRONGHOLDS COX'S GOAL

Will Invade Milwaukee With League Speech Today

WON'T DODGE, HE DECLARES

Leaves Michigan After Making Sixteen Addresses

ENROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX, CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Governor Cox Saturday was to carry his stump battle, with the league of nations as its central theme, into Milwaukee, where strong German-American sentiment against the treaty has been manifest.

On his arrival here Cox declared that he will not attempt to dodge the issue because of league hostility. He stated that he will emphasize his point that hope of preventing starvation of millions of children in Germany and in Austria lies in the league and that Europe in general will not get back to work until "the voice of America" fixes German indemnity.

PEACE TO PROGRESSIVES

Cox also planned to make strong appeal to progressive elements which have been a feature in Wisconsin politics for many years. In this connection he may give additional information to back up his charges that the big interests are making large contributions to the Republican campaign fund in order to obtain a "reserved seat in the government."

Encouraged by a series of 16 enthusiastic receptions in Michigan Friday, Cox said he was eager to invade all states usually considered Republican strongholds. Despite his 16 speeches, he governor finished his last address in Kalamazoo Friday night apparently with as much vigor as the first. His voice stood the strain well. But, desiring to make a whitewash of his campaign, he has ordered that the number of daily speeches in future be kept to the minimum.

ALERTS UP VICTIMS

His declarations for progressive government, the league and his attack on Harding's front porch campaign and the alleged Republican "stush fund" were given a big hand at all meetings.

Within the next few days, Cox said, he would continue to call upon Senator Warren G. Harding, the Republican presidential candidate, for a definite statement as to what "teeth" he would put in "The Hague tribunal. He also plans to continue quoting from official documents to prove that Republicans have assigned large quotas in some localities.

The people know that when Republican leaders testified in Chicago that there were no quotas "they were telling untruths and doing it under oath," he said. Cox was due to arrive at Milwaukee at 11:15 Saturday morning. He spent an hour and a half in his car here. He is due to leave Milwaukee at 9 a. m. Sunday for Chicago.

CLUB ROOMS FOR LEGION MEN

Protest Voiced Against Removal of Flag Pole From Square

President George Bayly of the R. E. Dunn, of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce and R. E. Dunn, of the board of directors of the Chamber appeared before Paul Gallagher Post No. 36 of the American Legion Friday night, and made a thorough explanation of the alleged action of the chamber in going on record against the soldiers' bonus bill. The action of the chamber, according to Dunn, was a protest against a proposed one per cent tax on gross sales, and did not refer to the soldiers' bonus. The Legion by unanimous vote accepted the explanation.

A motion by John Hartley that the Paul Gallagher post pay one-third of the expense of showing health and industrial moving pictures to East Side children for a period of one year was carried by unanimous vote. Captain Bert Wilcox of the East Side fire department is in charge of this work.

Fifteen members of the Post present at the meeting expressed their intention of attending the national convention in Cleveland, September 27 to 29. Post Adjutant Gallant will arrange reservations for all who expect to attend.

The Post adopted a resolution of protest against action of the council in passing legislation to remove the flag pole from the public square, and appointed a committee to present the position of the Legion to the council.

A committee was appointed to make a report as to the advisability of opening club rooms for members of the Legion. The Lima Merchants' Association has made an offer to completely furnish club rooms in case they are opened.

ANTHRACITE COAL STRIKE WANES

End of Unauthorized Walk-out Expected After Labor Day

SCRANTON, Pa.—(By United Press)—That the peak in the unauthorized strike of anthracite miners has been reached, was the opinion of operators and United Mine Workers officials here Saturday. It is expected that after Labor Day, many of the men now idle will return to work.

According to an estimate of an official of one of the largest coal companies in the region, 100,000 men have left their work as a result of the suspension decided on by the insurgent element of the miners' union. Many of the men idle are not in sympathy with the radical movement but remain away from work thru fear of the opinion of their fellow workers if they do not join the strike, operators claim.

United Mine Workers officials are doing all possible to persuade the miners to return to work.

Officers elected for the ensuing year at the Allen-co. Teacher's Institute Friday are: C. C. Ludwig, president, C. W. Westerman, vice-president and Miss Rachel Crifler, Beaver Dam, secretary.

Superintendent Cookson then held an open discussion with the teachers on the correct way to pronounce words such as institute, hog, dog, snake, adult, dictionary, often, bison, new, literature. These words, according to Cookson are commonly used but are often pronounced incorrectly.

He advised everyone to keep an up to date dictionary and to consult it when in doubt as to the correct pronunciation.

BAE UNCLAIMED

CANTON.—(By Associated Press)—Canton authorities are seeking the parents of a boy about two years old who was left at the home of Mrs. John Krolzik, 1512 Glendale Place, N. E. six days ago by a woman claiming to be the child's mother, with the request that Mrs. Krolzik keep the baby overnight while she sought a home for herself and child. She has not returned. The baby, a boy, has blue eyes and light hair. The child has been underfed for a long time, authorities say and his face and hair have been burned by exposure to the sun. The woman who left the child was of foreign appearance but spoke English without an accent and also conversed in French, Italian and German. She gave Mrs. Krolzik no information regarding herself or the child. Police believe the woman was a stranger in Canton and they also express doubt that she was the mother of the baby.

HALT ON SUFFRAGE ATTEMPTED

Tennessee Sends Rescinding Act to Secretary Colby

AID IN COURTS, IS AIM

Won't Affect Proclamation Already Issued, Proponents Say

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—(By Associated Press)—A certified copy of the Tennessee house of representatives journal of last Tuesday, when an attempt was made to rescind ratification by that body of the federal suffrage amendment, was in the mails Saturday enroute to Secretary of State Colby, at Washington. Governor Roberts announced he had transmitted the paper at the request of the house.

Opponents of suffrage were hopeful that certification of the house journal to the state department might aid them in their attempt to have the United States Supreme Court overthrow Tennessee's ratification of the suffrage amendment. They expressed that sending of the statement of the house's action Tuesday to Secretary Colby would result in this record becoming a part of the evidence that the courts are expected to review.

State Smith, L. Benton Tussing, a suffragist, however, declared that transmission of the journal to Washington would not affect validity of the suffrage proclamation issued by Secretary Colby.

'OUTLAW' RAILWAY MEN ACCUSED

Road Officials Charge Workers Are Being Terrorized

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Federal officials Saturday started investigation of charges that "outlaw" railroad strikers are deliberately carrying out a campaign of sabotage in an effort to frighten loyal employees into quitting their jobs. The charges are made by railroad executives.

They declare that enemies are turned loose in railroad yards, wages of loyal workers are being terrorized; school children of workers who returned to work, are being boycotted at school; and that railroad hotels are being warned against allowing "strike breakers" to rent rooms.

More than 100 presidents and other officials of railroads met here Friday to discuss the transportation situation.

G. O. P. PLANS TO BE REVEALED

Moore Confers With Cox Upon "Slush Fund" Details

STRONG EVIDENCE CLAIMED

Republican Chairman Hays Asserts Scheme Not Used

CHICAGO.—(By United Press)—Governor Cox, the Democratic presidential nominee, discussed the Senate "slush fund" investigation here Saturday with E. H. Moore, his convention manager, who is scheduled to present new "leads" to the Senate committee next week.

Moore talked briefly with Cox in the governor's private car, which remained in Chicago less than two hours. Together, they went over the information Moore plans to give to the committee Tuesday. Moore said it will prove conclusively Cox's charge that the Republican organization set out to collect a "cooperation fund" of $15,000,000 or $16,000,000 to buy an "underhand" on the government.

Part of the evidence Moore plans to give the committee consists of a circular known as "Form 101," said to be the plan for collecting large sums in the big cities, thru a secret organization which Moore charges was under direction of a professional money raiser.

"Cox read from Form 101 and an accompanying quota sheet in his Pittsburgh speech when he charged that $8,115,000 was to be raised in 51 cities in 27 states."

G. O. P. INSTRUCTIONS

"Campaign plan, larger cities," is the heading of Form 101, a copy of which was made available to the United Press here. The sheet bears the office address here of the treasurer of the Republican national committee, and the date June 14, 1929.

Under the heading "Chairman and executive committee," the circular says:

"Secure as chairman for the committee the man widely known and of commanding influence. Have him appoint a strong representative committee of at least 12 men. It may require two or three days to secure such a committee, but it must be hand-picked."

"Then follow instructions for arranging for a committee luncheon to be addressed by some 'inspirational speaker' who will get the 'rights' of every one on the committee men high, as to the amounts to be asked from big business men. The time has arrived when some prospects should be asked for subscriptions from $5,000 and upwards."

"PROSPECT LISTS"

Speaking of "prospect lists" the circular says:

"In a city the size of St. Louis, Cleveland or Detroit, a well-ordered list of at least 3,000 names should be secured. This list should contain only the names of prospects able to give from $100 up."

Next come instructions for "estimating how much ought to be collected."

"I recommend Nerv-Worth because of the fact that it certainly does benefit me when I become nervous and tired out after a long time of nursing." Thus wrote Claire Chidlers, a Parkersburg, W. Va. nurse some time ago, and she continued, "as my business it becomes necessary to lose lots of sleep, and requires many hours of constant watching, which wears on the nerves. The above is an endorsement from a woman whose profession constantly throws her in contact with medicines and their uses, and various kinds of sickness. Nothing needs to be added to the above statement, as it tells fully what Nerv-Worth does. WATERWAY ARGUMENT

RAILROAD conditions and high freight rates, as they exist at this moment, are strong arguments in favor of the rehabilitation of waterways and the establishment of new routes for the carrying of freight by vessel.

Would you believe that Chicago is twice as far from New York now as it was six years ago? More than that—every place in the United States is now about twice as far from every other place as it was in 1914. These are rather startling assertions, but their truthfulness can be proven.

Of course, the actual number of miles between New York and Chicago, or any other two places that might be named, is just the same now as it always was—but miles are not the only thing to measure by. We might use time, for instance, and it has been well said by an English writer that it is not mileage, but cost of transportation, which constitutes the true commercial measure of distance."

Geographically, Chicago is still 1,000 miles from New York, but, because of the increases made in freight rates during the past six years, the city on Lake Michigan is now, commercially, 2,100 miles from New York and every community in the country has been pushed back until it is twice as far away from the markets in which it either buys its supplies or sells its products as it was in 1914.

The whole increase was not made at once—the country never would have stood for it if it had been. First it was five per cent in 1914, then 15 per cent in 1917, then 25 per cent in 1918 and now an advance varying from 25 per cent for the southern and mountain-Pacific groups to 10 per cent for the eastern group and averages, according to an estimate made by the bureau of railway economics, 34.5 per cent for the whole country.

Stated in another way, this means that for every dollar paid to the railroads for freight in 1914 we must now pay $2 or more. It is just as certain as fate itself that every increase in cost of transportation increases both the cost of living and of doing business and decreases the territory in which our products, whether of farm or factory, can be sold. But the most vital question now is not whether we shall pay one price or another for the transportation of our goods, but whether we can get them carried at all.

Why should not the 28,000 miles of inland waterways in the United States be made available for use?

PUBLIC OFFICIALS

EVERY man in public office, even if only keeper of the dog pound, holds as high office in the general scheme of things as the President of the United States and as such has work that calls for responsibility to God as well as to his country.

There has been much in the atmosphere lately of not caring for principles. There has been a very sordid influence in the way people have sought money and have exploited the government. It makes one sick with disgust to see men use public office for their own sordid gain. Everybody seems to be out to make a killing, with no real thought of what it will lead to.

Running this universe is a whale of a job. And it is being run according to a plan. It is the job of everyone to conceive that they are partners in this big plan. The people have a tremendous job before them to make this plan go. It is only reasonable to believe that this government is the fruition of a tremendous plan which has been running for thousands of years with the principle that opportunity is given to all.

The man in public office has a sacred charge. One who has received the right sort of training cannot look upon politics in a sordid way; cannot look at a public office or a man holding public office without thinking that he has a patriotic job even if that job is only keeper of the dog pound. It is nothing short of a crime that a man use public office to further his own selfish ends.

MORE DECEPTION

GERMAN manufacturers in marking inferior goods which are being dumped in America and England as "Made In America" and "Made In England" to suit their purpose are continuing the deception which lost for this people the confidence of the world. At the same time they are discrediting American and English manufacturers by unfair means.

They are enabled thus to unload large quantities of articles and realize big sums quickly and at the same time avoid a popular prejudice. Prompt steps should be taken by the governments being victimized to stop the practice which in time will discredit and undermine their foreign trade.

PUT UP THE FLAG

WITHIN a few days Lima will entertain members of the great order of Elks from all parts of Ohio. Elaborate plans have been made for this entertainment by the city and local order and everything will be complete by the first of next week.

There is one object missing from the public square which should be in position before the big meeting—the American flag. Old Glory has not waved from the flagpole in the square for the last few months due to the fact that the apparatus for raising it has been out of order and there has been some controversy over the proposal to remove the pole. There has been no action by Council to remove it, and the city may for a small sum repair the fixtures and paint the pole.

There is no body of men more loyal to the Stars and Stripes than the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. For this reason the city should without fail arrange for the flag to be in place on the city flagpole during their visit here.
